Description

This antique 15ct gold bar brooch presents a high-quality chrysoberyl that radiates a captivating golden hue, bringing a warm and luminous touch to this elegant piece. The old European cut gemstone is beautifully cut and full of vibrance, drawing the eye with its depth of colour and clarity. Set at the centre of a slender gold bar, the chrysoberyl becomes the perfect focal point, enhanced by the refined simplicity of the design. Dating from the late Victorian to early Edwardian era, the brooch exemplifies the delicate precision and artistry of fine jewellery from that period. Its timeless style makes it equally suited to wear as a statement accent or as part of a refined vintage collection. Part of our antique brooch collection.
