Description

This antique rolled gold locket is a rare four-photo design, beautifully engraved with delicate scrolls and floral motifs across its softly gleaming surface. The centre features a blank circular panel, thoughtfully left open for personal initials or a small inscription. Inside, the locket opens to reveal space for four treasured photographs, making it a charming keepsake that balances sentimental value with late Victorian artistry. Its craftsmanship and detailing bring a sense of warmth and nostalgia to the piece. Part of our vintage locket collection.
