Description

This exquisite antique Art Nouveau necklace is crafted in 18ct white gold, featuring a vibrant pear-shaped pink tourmaline suspended beneath a decorative arrangement of old-cut diamonds. The flowing, organic lines and foliate motifs reflect the quintessential Art Nouveau style, celebrating nature and elegant movement. Each diamond accent adds a soft brilliance that enhances the delicate beauty of the central gemstone. Dating from the late 19th to early 20th century, this necklace beautifully captures the artistry and romance of the Art Nouveau era, a period that prized craftsmanship, fluid form, and natural inspiration. Part of our antique jewellery collection.
