Description

PROFESSIONALLY RESTORED AND SERVICED ~~ Superb original condition throughout ~~ This is a beautiful example of a large 18ct gold plated Victorian striking carriage clock dated to around 1880. It has a stunning 18ct gold plated case with a shaped fold down handle which is in mint condition having just undergone full restoration and replating. This is NOT a polished and lacquered brass case and being 18ct gold plated it will not tarnish or deteriorate, only a light dusting with a cloth is required. The movement is of an exceptional high quality and has a new Swiss made fully jewelled platform escapement, it runs for a full 8 days and keeps excellent time. It strikes on the hours and half hours on a tuned coiled gong. The movement is in excellent clean and running condition having just undergone a complete and comprehensive overhaul by Alan Williams of Plymouth Clocks who is a fellow of the British Horological Institute so you can be assured that this clock will give trouble free service for many many years before requiring any further attention. It comes complete with its original leather carrying case which miraculously still retains its original removeable front g...
