Description

Antique Leeds History Scrapbook / Ephemera Album Circa 1907–1924 A fascinating and substantial early 20th-century scrapbook containing original newspaper clippings and photographic illustrations documenting Old Leeds, its streets, landmarks, civic life, and artistic culture. The album includes: Edwardian and early interwar Leeds newspaper cuttings Illustrated features titled "Pictures of Old Leeds" and "Old Leeds Landmarks" Coverage of Post Office / G.P.O. Art Club exhibitions Named Leeds artist John H. Scott, with exhibition references Period photographs of streets, buildings, trades, and daily life Original contemporary assembly, not a later compilation The album appears to have been compiled at the time, likely by a local resident with a strong interest in Leeds history and the arts, resulting in a cohesive and evocative visual record of the city during the Edwardian and early interwar years. Condition: Worn and fragile in places, with age-related wear to the binding and pages, commensurate with age. This wear is consistent with genuine use and enhances its authenticity as a working historical archive. Please see photographs for overall condition. A scarce and...
