Description

This is a lovely and practical pair of sauce or cream ladles crafted by the highly collectable silversmith, Hester Bateman, during the reign of George III. In solid sterling silver, they carry the assay office mark for London 1790. The silver is in fine condition, given its age, with no tears or splits. There is a family crest on each finial. Dimensions: Total Silver Weight: 76g. Length: 18cm. Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
