Description

A wonderful example of a very early Apostle spoon. This one is hallmarked for London 1636 and features St Andrew atop the finial. The fig-shaped bowl is well attached to the typically hexagonal stem, which narrows towards the finial. The silver is in a remarkably good condition. Dimensions: Length: 17cm Silver Weight: 51g. Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
