Description

For your consideration is this rare opportunity to acquire a highly styled Art Deco circular occasional/ centre table dating to the 1930's and believed to be English in origin. A chrome tubular outer rail encircles the table top and is in unusually good condition being completely free from both pitting and tarnishing. There are three large supporting legs which sit proud of the table with pigeon hole open shelves running down the length which offers storage opportunities or display area as does the second under tier. The whole piece has been fully and professionally restored and so comes to you in fabulous condition with no damage or defects to report. This particular shape is one of the more rare shapes and particularly hard to source, this being our only second ever example in 15 years. This table would not have been cheap in its day and wasn't marketed for the masses but the discerning monied clientele who seek both kerb appeal and exceptional craftsmanship. Totally original having come from one family from new and it's first time being offered to market, we know the new owner will love it. The table is very heavy and of sturdy construction and will work well in many se...
