Description

Antique 20th century small oak cabinet, very well made and of good quality. It stands on turned legs with a supporting stretcher to the base, giving it excellent stability and a refined, traditional look. The upper section features a double door cabinet, while a singular drawer sits below, offering practical storage in a compact form. The front is beautifully decorated, showcasing lovely detailing that complements the piece's character. The oak displays gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing its charm and authenticity. This desirable example retains all its original handles and fittings, adding to its appeal. A very nice small size, ideal for a variety of spaces, and in good condition. The perfect addition to any home, combining practicality, quality craftsmanship, and timeless antique style.
