Description

Excellent solid silver spoon dating from the reign of George I. It is hallmarked for London 1719. The maker's mark is understandably worn but it may be for Joseph Smith. In the Hanoverian Rat Tail Pattern, the spoon has a pretty crest on finial. The Britannia Standard was introduced in 1696 and signifies a purer standard of silver than sterling - 95.8% compared to the 92.5% of sterling. Dimensions: Length: 20.5 Silver Weight: 62g. Complimentary gift wrapping is available on request. Post and packaging are free within the UK. Overseas buyers please e-mail for postage costs and please note: Import duties, taxes, and charges are not included in the item price or shipping cost. These charges are the buyer's responsibility. Please check with your country's customs office to determine what these additional costs will be prior to buying.
