Description

Antique 20th century good quality dressing mirror in oak, very well made and of good quality throughout. The piece features a beautifully turned and shaped base, giving it a strong yet elegant presence, with excellent proportions and solid construction. The upper section houses a beautiful mirror, topped with detailed carved decoration that adds character and visual interest to the overall design. The oak displays a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, enhancing the mirror's traditional appeal. Well crafted and in good condition, this is a highly attractive and practical piece. A perfect addition to any home, ideal for use in a bedroom, dressing area, or hallway, offering both functionality and timeless style.
