Description

This fine antique bronze study is by the highly acclaimed sculptor and artist Eugene Barillot (1841 – 1900). It depicts an ancient Greek archer testing his bow. The bearded man is naked and wearing only an ornate helmet and his shoes. This very well modelled figure is finished with a rich brown patina. The bronze is mounted on a solid, cut and polished black marble plinth. This very interesting and decorative bronze is in excellent original condition. French, circa 1870 Height 33cm x width 15cm x depth 9cm
