Description

Antique 19th century good quality rustic pine blanket box, a charming and highly desirable example with plenty of character. The piece stands on a solid plinth base and features original iron carrying handles to either side, adding to its authentic rustic appeal. The lift-up lid opens to reveal a generous central storage compartment, fitted with sturdy metal hinges and ideal for blankets, linens, or general household storage. Showcasing a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, the pine has developed a lovely aged patina that enhances its rustic look. Well made and of good quality, this blanket box remains in good condition and is both practical and decorative. A versatile and attractive piece, it would make a perfect addition to any home.
