Description

Antique 19th century fine quality chest of drawers in mahogany, beautifully made and of a high standard of craftsmanship. The piece stands on charming little bun feet and features four drawers in total, all retaining their original knob handles, adding to its authenticity and appeal. A small raised gallery to the top provides a subtle decorative touch while enhancing its overall character. The mahogany displays stunning grain and rich, warm colour throughout, showcasing the quality of the timber and the care taken in its construction. In great condition and a very desirable example, this chest of drawers is a striking and elegant piece of furniture. A timeless design that combines practicality with classic style, it truly has to be seen to be fully appreciated and would make a perfect addition to any home.
