Description

An antique 20th century oak storage box on stand, a highly practical and attractive piece of furniture of good quality. The upper section features a generous storage compartment, ideal for blankets, linens, toys, or general household storage, making it both useful and decorative. The flip-up lid retains its original hinges, opening smoothly to reveal the spacious interior. The piece is stood on elegant tapered legs, giving it a lighter, well-balanced appearance while maintaining solid construction. Beautiful oak grain and warm colour are present throughout, highlighting the quality of the timber and craftsmanship. Well made and in good condition, this is a very desirable example that would suit a wide range of interiors and makes a perfect addition to any home where stylish storage is required.
