Description

This exceptional 20th-century mahogany chest of drawers is a truly rare and unusual piece, featuring a striking tall design with a small cupboard at the top, adding both charm and practicality. Crafted to the absolute highest quality, it showcases meticulous attention to detail and expert craftsmanship throughout. The chest is thoughtfully designed for ease of transport, coming apart into three sections while maintaining its solid and well-balanced construction. Standing gracefully on classic bracket feet, it offers ample storage with a total of six drawers, arranged as two large drawers at the top, followed by two smaller drawers, and two further large drawers below. Each drawer retains its original brass dropper handles, enhancing the piece's authentic appeal. A magnificent grain and rich mahogany colour flow seamlessly throughout, further elevated by beautifully inlaid mahogany cross banding on each drawer front. Every detail of this chest has been carefully considered, making it a true statement piece. In perfect condition, this remarkable piece of furniture is not only highly functional but also a work of art, ideal for any traditional or period-inspired interi...
