Description

Antique 20th century small mahogany side table, very well made and of good quality, stood on elegant tapered legs with a useful shelf to the centre. The piece features a raised gallery to both the top and the shelf, adding character as well as practicality, along with finely reeded edges that enhance its decorative appeal. Showcasing a gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, this is a beautifully crafted and very practical piece of furniture. A nice small size, making it ideal for a variety of settings around the home, whether as a lamp table or occasional table. In good condition and of good construction, it is a perfect addition to any home, combining charm, quality and everyday usefulness.
