Description

Victorian Plumb Pudding Mahogany Triple Wardrobe Item Code: 1390 A fine Victorian plumb pudding mahogany triple wardrobe, showcasing rich, warm figuring throughout the doors and moulded panels. The wardrobe is well proportioned and elegantly constructed, with a projecting cornice above three panelled doors, all retaining their original character and patina. Internally, the wardrobe offers practical and versatile storage. One section is fitted with hanging space, while another houses two deep drawers beneath open storage, making it ideal for both clothing and linen. The interior is finished in the original pale wood, providing a pleasing contrast to the richly figured exterior. Raised on a plinth base, this wardrobe is both substantial and visually impressive, making it a strong statement piece for a bedroom or dressing room. Presented in good antique condition, with expected signs of age and use consistent with a genuine Victorian piece. Doors are slightly warped but all doors are closable and lockable. See photographs. Key Features * Victorian plumb pudding mahogany * Attractive, well-figured mahogany panels * Triple door configuration * Moulded cornice and plinth base *...
