Description

A fine late Victorian writing desk in walnut, beautifully inlaid with satinwood and enriched with elegant ormolu mounts. The desk is surmounted by a pierced brass gallery above a hinged fall-front, opening to reveal a well-fitted interior with drawers and a sliding writing surface. The interior retains its original lock and key, and the piece stands on gracefully shaped legs, with ormolu mounts adding a subtle decorative accent. The warm walnut tone and delicate inlay combine to create a desk of both practical function and decorative appeal. A refined and versatile piece, ideal for a study, drawing room or bedroom setting. English, circa 1880.
