Description

A fine pair of antique mahogany library chairs, beautifully crafted and rich in detail. Each chair features striking carved bird scroll arms and elegant cabriole legs terminating in classic ball and claw feet, with rear casters for ease of movement. The seats are coil-sprung for comfort and retain their original horsehair stuffing, newly upholstered in high-quality brown leather and finished with brass stud detailing. Solid, well-proportioned and exceptionally well made, these chairs are presented in showroom condition and are ready for immediate use. An impressive and practical pair, ideal for a library, study or living room, and easily personalised with cushions if desired.
