Description

This is a very pretty pair of good quality gilt bronze table lustres in the elegant Regency style. The lustres date from around 1900 and have campana sockets on fluted baluster stems with leaf-scroll branches. These are hung with facet cut-glass spears and button drops and have domed circular weighted bases. The lustres are in excellent condition and stand 21cm tall and are 8 cms in diameter. UK insured delivery is £15
