Description

A beautifully proportioned late Victorian desk, crafted in rich mahogany with a deep, lustrous finish and fitted with a smart black tooled leather writing surface. This compact piece offers both elegance and practicality, ideal for a study, hallway, or workspace. The desk features an arrangement of drawers—three to the left, four to the right, and five smaller drawers across the top—each with original brass ring handles and neatly chamfered edges. The central knee hole provides comfortable legroom, while the overall design reflects the restrained refinement of the period. Perfect for those seeking a quality antique with functional appeal, this desk would suit both traditional and eclectic interiors. A versatile piece with timeless charm and excellent craftsmanship. Delivery can be arranged nationwide
