Description

The Clydesdale Stud book. A collection of 67 Victorian and later hardback books dating from 1885 to 1943 and a walnut and inlaid open bookcase. The bookcase has two adjustable shelves, is made from burr walnut and has superb satin wood inlaid decoration. Passports and Registrations Pedigree Rules and Breeding Programme Introduction to our Rules and Breeding Programme The Clydesdale Horse Society is constituted as a Limited Company, Limited by Guarantee. It operates under a Memorandum and Articles of Association. For the purposes of Breeding, historically it has produced a Stud Book which operates under rules of set down and approved by its Editing Committee. The Society's pedigree rules (updated in October 2020 at paragraph 1 specifically for the non discrimination statement included therein) are set out below. Following the decision of the United Kingdom to leave the European Union for all practical purposes effective from 1 January 2021, in conjunction with the Scottish Government and its application for Scotland to receive accreditation of third Country Listing following Brexit, the Society has created a new document entitled its Breeding Programme.
