Description

An early 20th century pine bookcase of classic waterfall form, with gently shaped sides and simple, well proportioned outline. Made from solid pine, the bookcase offers useful storage. The interior is fitted with two adjustable shelves. A practical and characterful piece. Item Reference: M-6622 . Dimensions: Height – 108cm/ Width - 111cm/ Depth - 27cm / Shelf Height bottom to first - 28.5cm / First to Second - 26.5cm / Second to top - 21cm. . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition overall, showing expected signs of age and use. There is general surface wear throughout, including age-related marks and scratches to the top, shelves, and sides. The bookcase remains structurally sound. Evidence of historic woodworm can be seen, which is no longer active and has been treated as a precaution. Overall, a solid and attractive example of an antique stripped pine bookcase with plenty of character.
