Description

A high-quality pair of French porcelain figures made in Paris circa 1860 by Letu & Mauger. The figures depict a gallant and a young lady in stylised 18th-century costume and are arranged as a romantic genre composition with coordinated gestures and a theatrical presence. Finished in polychrome porcelain with restrained gilding and a bisque-like matt surface, each figure is mounted on a naturalistic base and a separate black plinth with gilt ornament. The impressed "L & M" marks are present to the bases. The scale and finish give the pair a clear decorative impact. Such pieces were intended for prominent display in 19th-century interiors. Dimensions: Female figure: height 31.5 cm; width 14 cm; depth 14 cm; weight 1472 g. Male figure: height 31.8 cm; width 14 cm; depth 13.5 cm; weight 1454 g. Condition: Overall excellent antique condition. The female figure shows a few very small, unobtrusive firing cracks (approx. 2 mm), inherent to manufacture. The male figure has a small loss to the hat at his feet and a minor chip to the back of the jabot collar; otherwise in very good condition. No restorations; clean under UV light. Please study the accompanying photographs carefully.
