Description

An elegant alabaster sculpture by noted Florentine artist Emilio P. Fiaschi, depicting a gracefully posed female figure in quiet contemplation. Beautifully modelled with smooth, refined surfaces and delicate naturalistic detail, the work exemplifies the artist's celebrated academic style and mastery of form. The figure is presented on a base featuring a decorative bronze frieze, adding richness and visual depth to the composition. Working in Florence during the late 19th and early 20th centuries, Fiaschi gained international acclaim for his idealised representations of feminine beauty. This sculpture is a superb example of his mature style, combining academic precision with a gentle romantic sensibility. Signed by the artist, it represents an exquisite addition to any collection of fine European sculpture.
