Description

A stunning, fine and impressive antique 2.54 carat demantoid garnet and 1.58 carat diamond, 18 carat yellow gold ring; part of our gemstone rings collection. This stunning, fine and impressive antique ring has been crafted in 18ct yellow gold with an 18ct white gold setting. The scrolling setting displays a stunning and rare central claw set 2.54ct cabochon cut demantoid garnet. The garnet is flanked with a 0.80ct and 0.73ct Old European cut diamonds, each claw set in a horizontal trilogy design. The main setting is further embellished with four pavé set Old European cut diamonds, set in sequence with the main gemstones. The scroll decorated ring shoulders integrate with the claw settings and blend seamlessly with the plain 18ct yellow gold ring shank. This antique garnet ring has been independently tested using state of the art technology (Niton XL2 Analyzer) and verified as 18 carat gold. This impressive garnet and diamond ring is supplied with two IDGL diamond grading report certificates for the feature stones, in addition to an IDGL diamond and gemstone grading report card. Such antique trilogy rings set with a large feature demantoid garnet are rare to the ma...
