Description

Victorian Mahogany Breakfront Open Bookcase Item Code: S27-1101 A handsome and well-proportioned Victorian mahogany breakfront open bookcase, dating from the mid-19th century. Crafted in rich, warm-toned mahogany, the bookcase features a classic three-section breakfront design, offering both visual presence and practical storage. The central section is flanked by slightly projecting end bays, each supported by finely carved corbels beneath the cornice. The bookcase retains its original adjustable shelving throughout, providing generous and versatile display space, while the stepped plinth base and moulded cornice complete the elegant architectural form. A superb example of Victorian craftsmanship, ideal for a library, study, or refined interior. Key Features * Authentic Victorian period bookcase * Solid mahogany construction * Classic three-section breakfront design * Carved corbel supports beneath the cornice * Original adjustable shelves throughout * Stepped plinth base * Rich colour and attractive patina Dimensions * Width: 193 cm * Depth: 36 cm * Height: 135 cm
