Description

A late Victorian satinwood lyre-back elbow chair, the back formed with a shaped top rail, pierced splat and fine line-inlaid detailing, above shaped arms and ring-turned legs united by stretchers. The central section to the back is beautifully inlaid with an engraved bone figure of a classical winged putto. A practical and particularly decorative occasional chair, well suited to a bedroom, dressing room or hallway. Its elbow form, upholstered seat and proportions also make it suitable as a desk chair for light use. Very good antique condition with only minor surface wear consistent with age. The upholstery is clean and serviceable. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1890. H: 87 W: 51 D: 52 cm Seat height: 44 cm
