Description

Antique 19th century fine quality wardrobe in mahogany, an impressive and beautifully constructed piece of the highest standard. Very well made and of fine quality, this wardrobe offers both elegance and excellent internal storage. The interior is thoughtfully arranged, with a large hanging space to the left-hand side fitted with a rail and multiple hooks, along with an open compartment below. To the right are four sliding shelves and three drawers, providing versatile and practical storage. The front features two large mirrored doors, the mirrors having aged beautifully and now displaying attractive sparkle and character. The wardrobe retains its crystal handle and is stood on a plinth base. Throughout, the mahogany shows gorgeous grain and a rich, stunning colour. In great condition and a very desirable, rare find, this wardrobe comes apart into four sections for ease of transport. A superb piece of furniture and a perfect addition to any home, combining refined appearance with outstanding functionality.
