Description

Antique 19th century farmhouse pine chest of drawers, a charming and practical piece with a lovely rustic character. The chest features five drawers to the front, all retaining their original knob handles, offering ample storage while maintaining its authentic farmhouse appeal. The piece is stood on turned legs and is well made and of good quality, with solid construction throughout. The pine displays gorgeous grain and warm colour, enhanced by its age and natural patina, giving it a desirable country look. In good condition and very appealing, this chest of drawers is a highly desirable example and would make a perfect addition to any home, fitting equally well in a traditional or relaxed farmhouse-style interior.
