Description

Country House Period Oak Antique Low Boy This Early 19th century Country House Period Oak Antique Low Boy / Side Table dates from ca. 1800. It has a shaped moulded top above three frieze drawers with decorative brass handles. This sits above a shaped apron with four cabriole legs and pad feet. This period Oak antique side table has old repairs and the Oak has aged to a warm shade with a striking grain, good patina, is in good condition and has been beautifully cleaned using a traditional form of furniture wax finishing.
