Description

1950s Pearl Drop Earrings in 9ct Gold An elegant pair of 1950s pearl drop earrings, crafted in 9ct yellow gold and designed in an Art Deco-inspired style that reflects the period's continued fondness for clean lines and balanced form. Each earring features an elongated Art Deco style Openwork gold drop finished with a lustrous cultured pearl suspended below. The pearls display a soft creamy tone with a pleasing, natural lustre that complements the warmth of the gold. Well proportioned and light on the ear, these earrings sit comfortably and move gently when worn, making them suitable for both everyday elegance and more formal occasions.
