Description

Antique 20th century good quality side table in oak, very well made and of solid construction. The table stands on sturdy square legs with a supporting stretcher across the middle, adding both strength and character to the design. Finished with casters to the base, it is easy to move and highly practical for everyday use. Displaying a gorgeous grain and warm colour throughout, this piece showcases the natural beauty of the oak. A very desirable example with a pleasing, versatile size, it would work well as a side table, lamp table, or occasional table. In good condition overall and full of charm, this is a perfect addition to any home.
