Description

Antique 20th century fine quality large oak dresser, a truly breathtaking and impressive piece of furniture of the finest quality. The upper section features two open shelves, fitted with multiple iron hooks, offering both display space and practical hanging storage. The central section has three drawers, all retaining their original knob handles, while a full-width shelf to the base provides additional storage and functionality. The oak displays magnificent figuring with stunning grain and rich colour throughout, showcasing exceptional craftsmanship and solid construction. In great condition and of a desirable large size, this is a rare and highly sought-after example. The dresser comes apart into two sections for ease of transport. A striking and substantial piece of furniture that truly has to be seen in person to be fully appreciated, it would make a stunning and characterful addition to any home.
