Description

Antique 20th century bureau bookcase in mahogany, a very attractive and highly desirable piece combining elegance with practical storage. The upper section is fully glazed and fitted with three adjustable shelves, ideal for displaying books, ceramics, or decorative items while keeping them protected. The central bureau opens to reveal a well-designed interior with multiple drawers and pigeonholes, providing excellent organisation and a comfortable writing space. Below, the base features three drawers, all retaining their original brass handles, adding to the authenticity and charm of the piece. Stood on graceful cabriole legs, the cabinet displays magnificent mahogany grain and beautiful figuring throughout. It comes apart into two sections for ease of transport and is complete with its key. In good condition and of fine quality, this very desirable bureau bookcase would be a perfect addition to any home.
