Description

Antique 20th century Arts and Crafts secrétaire in golden oak, a beautifully designed and highly desirable piece of fine quality furniture. Very well made, it showcases the honest craftsmanship and practical elegance associated with the Arts and Crafts movement. The lower section features a double door cupboard with a single shelf on the inside, offering useful concealed storage. Above, the beautifully fitted bureau section opens to reveal a well-arranged interior of multiple drawers and pigeonholes, ideal for writing, organising paperwork, and everyday use. The golden oak displays gorgeous grain and rich colour throughout, enhancing the character and warmth of the piece. Of fine quality and solid construction, this secrétaire is a rare and very desirable find, making it a perfect and eye-catching addition to any home.
