

SA1193935

Antique oil painting of birds
possibly by Marmaduke Cradock C1660-1717 old master animal painting oil painting of animals exotic birds
Dutch and Flemish style and influenced also possibly by

Price

GBP 7,950

USD 810.758 EUR 920

JACOB BOGDANI
(ANGLO-HUNGARIAN
1658-1724

Item Reference: SA1193935Date of manufacture: 18th Century

Description

A very large antique oil painting on canvas of birds, including pigeons, doves, ducks, geese, swan, kingfisher, heron other birds and fowl set near water and a castle ruin having been professionally restored and possibly by Marmaduke Cradock C 1660 to 1717 or by JACOB BOGDANI (ANGLO-HUNGARIAN 1658-1724 MEASUREMENTS OF THIS BEAUTIFULLY RESTORED ANTIQUE OIL PAINTING (canvas size only) WIDTH: 112cm HEIGHT: 89cm Measurements with the frame included : Width: 131cm Height: 109cm RESTORATION: This now bright and vibrant professionally cleaned large antique canvas on original stretchers now allows this fine large antique oil painting to be displayed. ABOUT MARMADUKE CRADOCK C1660-1717 Marmaduke Cradock was born in Somerton, Somerset. He served an apprenticeship to a house painter, before becoming a self-taught artist of high merit, painting decorative images of birds and animals in landscape settings. . Paintings by Cradock are rarely found, with only three examples signed by the artist are known currently. These include 'Peacocks, Doves, Turkeys, Chickens, and Ducks by a Classical Ruin in a Landscape' (Yale University, Center for British Art) and 'A Peacock and other Bird...'
Internal Ref: Crad1

Seller Details

Gerald Neville Antiques

East Sussex United Kingdom

Tel: 07597 391543

International Tel: +44 7597 391543