Description

An exceptional, fine and impressive antique Victorian English sterling silver presentation bowl; an addition to our ornamental antique silverware collection. This exceptional antique Victorian sterling silver bowl has a circular form onto a circular domed foot. The lower portion of this antique silver bowl is encircled with a band of impressive chased leaf decoration. The upper portion of the bowl is ornamented with chased decorated oval medallions, accented with a fabric swag and tied ribbon design. The upper rim is encompassed with a plain applied moulded border to the rim. The bowl is fitted with two fine and original hallmarked loop handles, accented with impressive cast and applied lion mask sockets. This antique silver bowl with lion handles is a commanding and decorative piece, ideally suited for display on a dining table, sideboard or mantelpiece, where it can serve as a centrepiece, a functional vessel, or simply be admired as a statement object. Condition This antique bowl is an exceptional gauge of silver, exceptional quality and in excellent condition. The chased, cast and applied decoration is all very sharp. Full hallmarks struck to the surface of the...
