Description

A fine Victorian walnut sewing table of octagonal form. The beautifully inlaid hinged lid opens to a well fitted divided interior around a deep central well with cover, all raised on a scrolled tripod base. Designed for sewing and needlework, it offers practical compartmentalised storage easily adaptable for use in a living space or dressing room. Very good antique condition with only light surface wear consistent with age. Structurally sound, clean and ready to place. English, circa 1860. H: 71 W: 41 D: 41 cm
