Description

A very good quality French late 19th century brass antique mantel clock with ebonised detail and fluted columns to the corners finished with leaf capitals and base. The case has anthemion and Egyptian influence mounts with architectural arches and bevelled glass panels, showcasing the clock's movement and compensating pendulum. The clock has a white enamel dial with Roman numerals and a French eight day duration movement which strikes the hours and half hours on a bell. The back plate has the retailers name- Maple & Co made in France. The brass has been cleaned and lacquered to prevent tarnishing. The movement has been cleaned and serviced and comes with a 12 month guarantee.
