Description

An impressive and highly decorated Georgian solid mahogany antique chest on chest with polychrome hand painted detail. The chest is painted with delicate floral swags throughout with musical instruments to the top section of the sides and urn decoration to the lower section. The drawer facades have different designs on each drawer including, two phoenix, cherubs and a Demi God all finished with a decorative border and gilded swan neck handles. The chest has all oak lined drawers and still retains its original ogee bracket feet which have acanthus leaf decoration. All the locks are in full working order and come with a key. The chest comes in two sections enabling it to be moved around easily.
