Description

Here's a very nice old pine wardrobe with a single door and a classic cornice top. The door is four-panelled, and the sides are panelled as well, giving the piece a strong, traditional look. The top is flat, making it useful for baskets or additional storage if needed. The wardrobe is in great condition for its age and dates from around 1900, possibly a little earlier. It is currently in bare wood, having been stripped of its original painted finish. The door is mounted on French-style external hinges, allowing it to open wide for easy access. Inside, there is currently no hanging rail, but one can be fitted for you. If you don't need the full hanging height, a shelf with a rail underneath could also be installed. The internal depth is generous, making it suitable for coats and bulkier garments. This wardrobe completely dismantles for delivery, so it can be taken upstairs with ease. Available for £875 as it is, or £947 if you'd like it waxed. Dimensions: height 76.5", width 53", depth 24", internal depth 20" (approximately 194 cm x 135 cm x 61 cm, internal depth 51 cm).
