Description

A striking burr walnut cocktail cabinet, dating from circa 1930, showcasing beautifully figured walnut veneers arranged in bold, symmetrical grain patterns across the doors and body. The cabinet stands on elegant carved cabriole legs and is finished with a finely carved cresting and apron, reflecting high-quality cabinetmaking of the early 20th century. The doors open to reveal a well-designed fitted interior with mirrored back, glass shelves and compartments for bottles and stemware, making it both highly decorative and practical. The rich colour, dramatic burr figuring and sculptural form give this cabinet strong visual presence, whether used as a drinks cabinet, cocktail cabinet or refined storage piece in a living or entertaining space. A sophisticated and versatile piece, ideal for both classic and contemporary interiors. Dimensions H: 185cm | W: 95cm | D: 50cm
