Description

For your consideration is this fabulously stylish 1930's Art Deco cocktail cabinet. This dry bar dates to the 1930's and has all the bells and whistles you want from a cocktail cabinet. The upper interior has a mirrored base and mirrored backing. The lower section of the cabinet opens to reveal a very generously sized shelving space for glasses and bottles. This area will take full size liquor bottles. The cabinet itself is veneered in the most glorious walnut, with heavily figured patterns, the upper interior has blonde maple veneer and a mirrored backing. We've had the whole cabinet restored and so comes to you in great condition. There is some discolouration to the maple interior, only noticeable on close inspection and certainly not anything that distracts. Overall size of this cabinet is also very appealing, large enough to house all your requirements but not so big and rambling to take over a room. FREE UK mainland two man delivery.
