Description

This SET OF 18 DUTCH DELFT TILES date from circa 1780. They depict scenes from Dutch Life. Each Tile measures approximately 5 inches (12.5 cm) square. When arranged as a panel they measure 30.5 inches (77.5 cm) by 15.25 inches (39 cm). There are some nibbles to the edges. The photograph shows the three tiles with the most obvious chips. One of these has had a corner reglued (please see close-up). There is no restoration. The backs of the Tiles are clean which will make them easier to fix to a wall, if so desired. Express delivery within the UK is included. Please email for Overseas Shipping!
