Description

A pair of early 20th-century French figural lamps, featuring beautifully cast metal cherubs clinging to torch-style sconces. The cherub figures, ornate bases, and flame finials are all original, showing lovely detailing and patination consistent with their age. The angled poles have likely been replaced during a later restoration, finished in matte black to complement the original components. Each cherub holds a decorative sconce with remnants of original fittings, making them excellent candidates for rewiring. H: 41 W: 18 D: 22cm
