Description

1950s Triple Strand Pearl Necklace with Diamond Art Deco Clasp in 9ct Gold An elegant triple strand pearl necklace dating to the 1950s, beautifully composed and finished with an attractive Art Deco-inspired diamond clasp. The necklace is formed of three graduated strands of cultured pearls, ranging in size from 7.5mm to 4mm, each displaying a soft ivory tone with a pleasing, even lustre. The differing strand lengths allow the necklace to sit gracefully at the neckline, creating depth and movement while remaining refined and well balanced. The strands are secured by a decorative 9ct gold hook clasp of geometric Art Deco design, set with a small central diamond. The clasp is fitted with a safety chain, offering both reassurance and a subtle period detail. Offered in excellent condition and presented in the box illustrated, this is a timeless mid-century pearl necklace with elegant proportions and everyday wearability.
