Description

Antique Victorian Oil Painting – River Conwy, North Wales – Thomas Spinks (1847–1927), c.1890 Artist: Thomas Spinks (1847–1927) Title: A Quiet Pool, North Wales – On the Conwy River Date: Circa 1890 (Late 19th Century Victorian) Medium: Oil on canvas Signed: “T. Spinks” lower corner Frame: Original gilt frame, ready to hang Size (frame): H 46.5 cm x W 62 cm x D 5.5 cm Description A fine antique Victorian oil on canvas depicting a tranquil pool on the River Conwy, North Wales, painted during Thomas Spinks’ sought-after Welsh period. The composition is well balanced, with rugged boulders on the left bank and softer ground to the right, where mature trees and a small clearing create depth. Two grazing sheep add scale and a pleasing pastoral detail. A warm golden-brown tree in the foreground anchors the scene against cooler greens and greys, while the river is painted with convincing movement and light. In the distance, hills and mountains recede gently beneath an animated sky of white cloud and blue, with a gathering storm cloud adding atmosphere and drama typical of North Welsh weather. About the Artist Thomas Spinks was a recognised British landscape painter active in th...
