Description

Timeless Victorian earrings in a very slightly rosy gold, each formed of three parts: the wires with faceted half-dome fronts; dangling faceted teardrops and the shining frames around them. The bottom section can be easily removed to create smaller drops with just the top - the perfect day-to-night earrings. • Condition: Very good antique condition, one drop has some cosmetic damage on the back, see photos. • Fixing: Front-fastening ear wires. • Stamps/hallmarks: None found. Tested as nine-carat gold. • Era: Estimated Victorian (c.1837-1901). • Size: 3.2cm total drop from the top of the ear wire. 2.4 x 1cm not including the wires. • Weight: 1.7g.
